Important: We need all documents translated in English and translation must be notarized or by an official translator, who can swear an oath. All your previous education will go through PLAR (Prior learning assessment) and based on the outcome of the assessments; you will be assigned courses and grades of your class.

(International students pay fees for 10 months together plus registration, for the first year). Fee amount is refundable if the visa is not issued, rejected or canceled and because of this student cannot join the school. Registration is non-refundable. You need to provide an official rejection letter and necessary documents, to get a refund.

Note: We offer confirmation of fees received and offer of admission, once fees and registration paid, for study permit. Pls. contact the school for details of fees and registration. No IELTS required for the admission. Having IELTS is an advantage, but not required, for school admission or study permit for our school.
